

The Australian Himalayan Foundation

Presents

A Night in the Himalaya Guest Speaker Andrew Lock

Australian Himalayan Foundation Sydney Fundraising Dinner
Friday 3 September 6.30 for 7 pm, Sofitel Wentworth Hotel, Sydney

Andrew Lock is Australia's most accomplished high altitude mountaineer. In 2009 he completed his 16-year quest to climb all 14 of the world's 8000 metre peaks (including summiting Mt Everest twice). He has led teams to some of the most extreme parts of the planet, surviving avalanches, frostbite - and overcoming enormous physical and personal challenges. A renowned and enthralling speaker, Andrew was recently appointed as the first Ambassador of the Australian Himalayan Foundation.

Join us for an evening of inspiration and enjoyment, raising funds to support the people of the Himalaya through our health, education and environmental projects.

- ✦ Andrew Lock delivering the Sir Edmund Hillary Memorial Address.
- ✦ Tenzin Choegyal, internationally acclaimed Tibetan singer and musician
- ✦ Stunning new footage of our projects and the world's highest peaks
- ✦ The opportunity to meet Everest summiteers and renowned adventurers
- ✦ Launch of the Himalayan Artists Award and the Bhutan Scholarships Program
- ✦ Himalayan Boutique with original, up-market items from India and Nepal
- ✦ Selection of distinctive auction and raffle items
- ✦ Greg Grainger, television personality and documentary filmmaker as MC

Our previous Sydney dinners were an enormous success and the funds raised have enabled us to expand our projects including the Quality Education Program, helping more than 35,000 children to have a decent education in the poorest region of Nepal.
