Supporting Your Cause

The Australian Himalayan Foundation (AHF), now recognised as one of the leading aid and development organisations dedicated to supporting the people of the Himalaya, was formed in 2001 by a group of Himalayan adventurers to support the work of Sir Edmund Hillary and give something back to the region. The AHF is extremely proud that with very low overheads it implements cost effective, practical projects, in the poorest, most under-resourced and disadvantaged areas of Nepal, Bhutan and Northern India.

The AHF programs include the flagship Teacher Training and Quality Inclusive Education (TTQIE) program in some of the poorest areas in Nepal; a life-saving Women's Health Project in the Solu Khumbu; a life-changing education program in remote Bhutan and a practical environmental conservation program that protects precious livestock and the elusive Snow Leopard in the Indian Himalaya.

All these programs provide, particularly for girls and women, improved life and work opportunities through better education, training and improved health services.

The AHF is a registered Australian NGO with tax-deductibility status and is a member of the Australian Council for International Development. AHF has Accreditation status with the Australian Government overseas aid program.

Support AHF and join us for the trip of a lifetime!

Your Adventure

We explore the less frequented trails visited by only a handful of trekkers each year. Enroute we gain incredible views of the entire Himalayan range including Everest, Lhotse, Makalu, and more from our secluded camp at Tenkharka. We visit schools and a number of Buddhist monasteries and gompas built to accommodate the Sherpa and Tamang religious communities in the region.

An important dimension to the trek is an opportunity to sample local life through Brigitte's family and friends. Brigitte has been frequenting the area since 2007 and made many connections with local people. You will also get a chance to appreciate the educational advances in the schools and communities. It includes work undertaken by Brigitte Muir, the first Australian woman to summit Everest and the first Australian to climb the highest peak on each continent, who is a devoted supporter of AHF's flagship TTQE (Teacher Training, Quality Education) program in the Lower Solu Khumbu region of Nepal.

Solu and the whole of Nepal has seen many basic roads built where trails only existed prior. Although this changes the character of trekking in the area, it bears to remember that it makes life for the permanent inhabitants much easier (think trips to hospitals etc) and that many trails known to the local people still exist between places. It is using local knowledge that we will endeavour to always find the route less travelled.

Cause Supported by this Huma Challenge

The Australian Himalayan Foundation is dedicated to helping the people of the remote Himalaya to improve living standards through education, training, health and environmental sustainability. Each participant on this trek has a commitment to raise a minimum of $1,000. By registering for the adventure, you agree to raise the minimum fundraising amount specified. AHF are looking to make a significant impact, so the goal is for each person to have met their fundraising target.

Child Protection Policy

Children working and living in tourist areas are especially vulnerable to physical, emotional, and sexual abuse. Huma Charity Challenge and the Australian Himalayan Foundation (AHF) are committed to the protection of children and vulnerable people everywhere. On itineraries where travellers are visiting AHF Projects and local communities, we have in place information for Trekkers "Playing our part to keep children and vulnerable people safe in the Himalaya

About Your Escort

Belgian born Brigitte Muir OAM has had a passion for adventure and the unknown since reading the adventures of Tintin as a child. She discovered caving at high school, and after giving climbing a go, she embarked on a high altitude mountaineering career that spanned over thirty years and seven continents. Brigitte moved to Australia in 1983, after falling in love with the vastness of the continent and its big skies, and became Australian in 1987. Ten years later, she was at the top of Mount Everest, the highest mountain in Asia, and last on her quest to climb the highest peak on each continent. She abandoned high altitude climbing in 1999, when a close friend from Denmark was killed coming down from the summit that she was about to reach without Sherpas or oxygen. She reconverted to storytelling, and teaching people high altitude climbing for World Expeditions in Nepal and Tibet, before dedicating herself to a small subsistence farming village in the Solu called Lura. She has been filming there since 2007 and raising funds for women empowerment since 2009. Her deep connection with the land and the people allow participants a unique insight into the life of every day Tamang and Sherpa people which is neigh impossible in the more touristy areas of the Khumbu, Langtang and the Annapurna.

Responsible Travel

The natural environments that you'll travel through are fragile; the cultures and traditions precious and often the communities we pass through are reliant on tourism. It is our responsibility as visitors to minimise the impact of our presence, protect what is precious and where we can leave a positive impact. Learn how you can do this by downloading the Thoughtful Traveller booklet from our website.

Trip grading Introductory to Moderate

On a moderate trek physical activity will generally not exceed eight hours in a day, and altitudes generally not exceeding 5,500 metres. On a moderate adventure the physical activity is sustained and travellers should be comfortable with occasional rough terrain. At any stage of a moderate trek you can expect long steep climbs and descents and a wide range of weather conditions. An example of an average day on moderate trek could include several ascents and descents of 500 metres or more, level ground is rare in the mountains. To prepare for a moderate trek you should begin training at least four to five months before your departure. As a guideline, an hour of aerobic exercise three to four times per week would be considered a minimum requirement. The best preparation is bushwalking involving relatively steep ascents and descents. If you can manage a couple of valley floor to ridgeline ascents per bushwalk, albeit with stops along the way, you will cope with a moderately graded trek. Speed is not important, stamina, confidence and continuity are.

Detailed Itinerary

DAY 1 Arrive Kathmandu

You will be met by a World Expeditions representative and transferred to the Radisson Hotel. Remainder of the afternoon at leisure. There will be a pre-trek briefing at around 5pm where arrangements will be made for the distribution of your kit bag, sleeping bag and down/fibrefill jacket. Evening drinks are held in the hotel for all World Expeditions clients. This is a great opportunity to get to know your fellow group members before heading out to dinner. Overnight Radisson Hotel
meals: NIL

DAY 2 Drive to Phaplu (2400m), stay Numbur Lodge 8 hours

We ease our way into the mountains by discovering the land in between, travelling by jeep and following the Sunkosi River towards the Terai, before heading east into the hills to Salleri and Phaplu in the heart of the lower Solu Khumbu region. People used to walk down the Sunkosi to buy salt. These days, it is more a place where people go for their holidays, and local resorts abound on its shores. The river is popular for river rafting as well. Next, we get to Okhaldhunga and our further drive finally takes us to Dhap, and Phaplu.

Overnight Numbur Lodge

meals: B,L,D

DAYS 3-4 To Lura Village (2450m); Garma School Visit, Women's Committee, Puja at Gompa 2 hours

Before heading to Lura, we will visit a school that is supported by AHF and REED Nepal's Teacher Training Quality Inclusive Education (TTQE) project. A member of REED Nepal, (AHF's partner NGO based in Kathmandu with an office in Salleri), who implement the program, will be on hand to introduce you to the Garma School. From Phaplu it is a short trek (2 hours) to the village of Lura. Lura is Brigitte's second home in Nepal. Since 2007, she has visited Lura numerous times, to film her friend Lhakpa Tamang (another Everest summiteer who guided on the Three Peaks in the Khumbu high altitude mountaineering trips Brigitte led for WE until 2011) and his family. This led to fundraising for literacy and empowerment classes for the women. There will also be plenty of time to meet local women and share their thoughts on how to improve educational opportunities in this relatively under-resourced region.

In fact, we camp nearby with every opportunity to meet the local people and gain an initial appreciation of their daily routine as well as the educational aspirations and challenges they encounter. We will also participate in a puja organised for us at the local gompa.

Adventure Travel

By its very nature Charity Challenges involve an element of the unexpected. It's an adventure! In remote and developing countries do not expect standards you are used to at home. Remote areas are sometimes unpredictable and itineraries may be altered. To get the most out of your adventure it is important that you are suitably fit, flexible, positive and eager to take on all the challenges that arise. If you are uncertain about your suitability for this trip we recommend that you speak with your charity representative or one of our team. Important Note These trip notes represent the most current information for this itinerary, and may supersede any other supplied information, including but not limited to the itinerary and price. The itinerary should be seen as a guide only. This itinerary may change at any time due to inclement weather, forces of nature and other circumstances beyond our control.

DAY 5 Trek to Tenkharka (2975m) 4-5 hours

A rewarding day as we head toward Pike Peak set high above the surrounding rural landscape. We trek along a narrow ridge meandering through a magical forest (with rhododendrons in bloom) as we gradually ascend to our Tenkharka camp. On the way we visit the Gyamdanda Hindu Forest Temple, nestled between giant boulders. As we ascend a challenging ridge, we gain inspiring views of Everest, Lhotse and Makalu.

Overnight camp

meals: B,L,D

DAY 6 Trek to camp in vicinity of Loding (2484m) 3-4 hours

After savouring a magnificent Himalaya early morning we follow a seldom used path toward well marked village trails as we head toward Loding and our campsite. Here we visit the school, also supported by AHF.

Overnight camp

meals: B,L,D

DAY 7 Trek to Junbesi (2711m) via pass and red panda forest. 6 hours

We gradually ascend through traditional farming settlements and forested ridges, home to red pandas, to reach the main trail extending from Jiri to Everest Base Camp and the thriving Sherpa village of Junbesi. Until the 1980's this was the route that most trekkers followed to reach Everest Base Camp. Nowadays it is a trading lifeline with mule trains carrying loads to and from the Everest region to the roadhead that has extended over the years beyond Jiri towards Kharikola and Lukla.

Overnight camp

meals: B,L,D

DAY 8 Trek to Phurteng (3010m) Spectacular views of Everest

Today we step into the unknown as we follow a smaller trail across the Solu Khola to Phurteng (3010m). Everest and Mera Peak views should reward us along the way as we get closer to tonight's campsite. Also, to the south-east, you can see the valley of Dudhkund Khola which tears the hills apart and flows out towards the horizon.

Overnight camp

meals: B,L,D

DAY 9 Trek to Taksindu La (2960m), via Ringmo

Our trail today continues with glorious views of the Himalaya, through the village of Salung, fields and forests where monkeys play, to cross the Dudhkund Khola at Ringmo. The final two hour uphill effort brings us to the Taksindu La (2960m), on the old route to Mount Everest.

Overnight camp at lodge

meals: B,L,D

DAY 10 Trek to Chiwang Monastery via forest ridge (exploratory) 6-7 hours

The trail from Taksindu to Chiwang Monastery follows a ridge high in the forest and is rarely used, even by local monks. Our exploration finishes at the monastery, and if today is the hardest day of the trek, we are well prepared for it, as on the way Brigitte has taught you how to walk and save energy at altitude. Camp at the monastery, perched on top of a cliff above Phaplu. The Chiwang Monastery was founded by the late Sangey Lama, in 1923. Sangey Lama's ancestors, and all Sherpa people, have their origins in Kham, in northeastern Tibet. They migrated to the Everest region of the Solu Khumbu and made their home there, some 500 years ago.

We descend through the outlying settlements to Phaplu which completes this truly remarkable journey.

Fundraising Support

There are a few different ways you can approach your fundraising:

1. You can fundraise the charity donation by asking friends, family and work mates to support the cause.
2. You may choose to donate the $1000 as a personal donation.
3. You can fundraise as much as you can and if you don't make it, personally fund the gap to hit your target.

AHF will set up a fundraising page for the group. Once you register via Huma Charity Challenge, AHF will be in touch to help you kick start your fundraising and support you to reach your target. You can read more about the AHF at www.australianhimalayanfoundation.org.au

Huma Charity Challenge will send you a comprehensive Confirmation Kit that includes a Fundraiser's Guidebook, a great resource for fundraising ideas and support.

Everest Trails with Brigitte Muir for AHF

Join Brigitte Muir on a slow and stunning trek through the heartland of the lower Solu Khumbu and raise vital funds AHF

Nepal's population of around 30 million people practice a blend of Hindu, Buddhist and traditional animist religion. While Nepal is a predominantly rural society, with 90% of the population living outside metropolitan areas, Kathmandu is rapidly urbanizing with a population of around 1 million. With over 100 different ethnic groups and languages, and an unparalleled concentration of World Heritage Sites in the Kathmandu Valley, Nepal offers a fascinating cultural tapestry like few places on earth.

Climate

The spring months (March-May) is the perfect season to trek in Nepal if you're after warmer temperatures, blossoming flora, and temperate days. Early spring tends to be a bit chilly, with mild temperatures in the low elevation regions between 800-2,000m (2,600-6,600ft), making trekking in areas such as lower Solu Khumbu very pleasant. As winter fades away and spring pushes in, temperatures in regions with elevations over 4,000m (13,000ft) have moderate temperatures, making way for sunny, clear and warm trekking conditions.

Considered one of the best seasons to trek and climb in the Himalaya, spring brings not only with it the sun and warmer temperatures, but fields of blossoming wild flora such as the famous giant rhododendrons, giving the landscape a radiant and vibrant texture.

Mountain Flights

Twin Otter is the primary mode of transport to and from the airstrip at Phaplu. This service is fairly dependable, however in case the flights are cancelled due to mountain weather conditions, World Expeditions will charter a helicopter to ensure you are on schedule for your international flight connections. The helicopters can fly if the visibility is 1500m, while the Twin Otter can fly if the visibility is 5000m as per the Civil Aviation Rules. The cost of the helicopter is payable directly to our Kathmandu office in the event that this service is utilised. US cash or credit cards (Visa Cards, American Express only) are accepted. You will be given a receipt upon payment so that you may claim the amount from your travel insurance. The minimum cost will be US$250 and maximum US$1000 depending on the number of group members.

The maximum allowance for checked luggage on these flights is 15kg per person and 5kg for hand luggage. These limits are strictly adhered to so please pack carefully. Please note that approx 5.5kgs of this weight will be taken up by the sleeping bag (2.5kg), down jacket (1.5kg), kit bag (1kg) and sleeping bag liner (0.5kg) that you are provided.

A Typical Day

You will be woken with a cup of tea brought to your tent around 6:30am, followed by a small bowl of warm water for washing. Before breakfast you pack your gear into your kit bag which is then taken by the pack-animals or porters and will not be available to you until you reach camp that afternoon. After a wholesome breakfast we are usually on the trail between 7.30 – 8am, depending upon the duration and nature of the day's walk. We will walk for around 3-4 hours and then generally break for lunch for about 1 hour. Some of our staff will walk ahead and select a suitable place to stop. The afternoon walk is generally a little shorter and camp is usually reached by around 3.30 - 4.30 pm, though the exploratory nature of this trip will likely necessitate longer days on occasion. Once we have reached camp and the kitchen is set up, afternoon tea will be prepared. From then until dinner there is time to rest or explore the surrounding area. Dinner is usually served between 6-7 pm. Remember to bring your headlamp and your water bottles to the dining tent so they can be filled with boiling water. Trekking evenings afford some of the best memories of your trek, whether it is talking, playing cards, chatting with the crew or joining in some singing and dancing with the local people. Much of the enjoyment of an expedition is in the journey itself.

Wilderness Camps

Our wilderness campsites function without any permanent infrastructure. These are traditional expedition style camps which are set up when we arrive. These camps consist of a mess tent, kitchen tent, toilet tent and two person tents for sleeping. These sites have been handpicked for their scenic locations and permanent structures are not permitted under the national park rules.

Dietary Requirements

Provided we are advised in advance of your departure we are able to cater for vegetarian diets and can assist with medically recommended diets (allergies and intolerances). Please ensure you discuss your requirements with us well in advance (at least 1 month prior to your trip) to determine whether we can cater to such dietary requirements on your chosen adventure. Please note that options are likely to be limited in very remote locations or alternatives may be more expensive or unavailable. There may be times when those with special requirements may need to provide their own food. We are unable to guarantee a peanut-free or allergen-free trip, and therefore, we strongly encourage that travellers with life-threatening or severe allergies take all necessary medical precautions to prepare for the possibility of exposure. Passengers must travel with all necessary medications for food allergies and be capable of self-administering these medications.

Accommodation on the Trip

In Kathmandu we stay at the comfortable, well located Radisson Hotel. The Radisson Hotel is situated in Lazimpat, a quiet and central area of Kathmandu. Only a short 12 minute walk to the main tourist district of Thamel, the Radisson acts as a base for World Expeditions travellers. The hotel has a World Expeditions tour desk in the foyer, free WIFI, a pool and bar, gymnasium, restaurants, room service, currency exchange and free luggage storage whilst you are on trip. A hearty buffet breakfast is included with every night stay in the Radisson.

On trek we stay in a combination of wilderness camps and carefully selected eco lodges. These lodges have been selected with our responsible tourism practices in mind and they use a mix of cow/yak dung/solar and generators for power.

What You Carry

In your daypack you will need to carry extra warm clothing (depending on the altitude, location and weather), a rainjacket, water bottle, camera gear, valuables and personal items such as sunscreen, lip-eze etc. Porters and mules carry all group gear and your trek pack.

Equipment Required

Specialist gear required include walking boots and day pack (a comprehensive gear list is provided in the pre-departure information provided on booking).

Acute Mountain Sickness

When we ascend above 2500 metres our bodies have to acclimatise to the decreasing amount of the oxygen available. To allow our bodies to adjust we have structured our treks so that you ascend slowly, allowing acclimatisation to occur. However, during the acclimatisation process, you may experience some of the following symptoms.

- Headache
- Tiredness
- Disturbed sleep
- Loss of appetite/nausea
- Shortness of breath

Everest Trails with Brigitte Muir for AHF

Join Brigitte Muir on a slow and stunning trek through the heartland of the lower Solu Khumbu and raise vital funds AHF

- Cough
- Palpitation
- Swelling of the hands and face

Individuals acclimatise at different rates. Your best strategy is to take your time and drink plenty of water. These symptoms may not indicate the onset of A.M.S. and if you experience them it does not necessarily mean that you should not continue. All our group leaders have extensive first aid training and we urge you to communicate with the group leader at all times should you believe you have any symptoms in order that we can effectively monitor your symptoms. The only cure for Acute Mountain Sickness is to descend.

Please note that your group leader has ultimate responsibility and may ask you to descend if symptoms persist.

Porter Initiatives

Porter Welfare in Nepal: the Himalaya

Porters are an integral part of the World Expeditions philosophy and style of travel. We take our travellers off-the-beaten track, avoiding the congested trails, to experience our often remote tent-based adventures ... this style of trekking is enabled by porters. When we trek, the entire group - travellers, guides and porters alike - are a team who share the same needs for safety in the mountain environment. Our Himalaya porters receive the following:

*A good working wage that is regulated by the Trekking Agents Association of Nepal and the Labour Union of Nepal. We pay per their guidelines, which are unionised.

*We are one of the only trekking companies in Nepal to provide our porters with three meals a day, prepared by our cooks.

*We are one of the only trekking companies in Nepal to provide our porters with lodging or tents, sleeping mats and blankets.

*Porters also receive life insurance and income protection insurance.

*Access to same first aid care that our travellers receive including emergency helicopter evacuation if required.

*Porters are provided with wind and waterproof jacket and over-trousers, 2 pairs of woollen socks, 2 pair of leather shoes on long treks and 2 pairs of canvas shoes while on short treks, woollen gloves, warm cap, sunglasses, mattress and blanket and tent / lodge.

*Porters are not to carry more than 30kgs.

*The minimum age for a Porter is 16 and the maximum age is 50 years old.

World Expeditions supports the good work of a number of international organisations that operate to ensure the health and education of porters, they are:

International Porter Protection Group >> www.ippg.net

International Mountain Explorers Connection >> www.mountainexplorers.org

Kilimanjaro Guide Scholarship Foundation Inc. >> www.kiliguides.org

Protecting the Environment

Deforestation is Nepal's greatest environmental problem and World Expeditions pioneered the use of kerosene as an alternative fuel to wood on all expeditions. We do not have camp fires and we strongly discourage trekkers from buying wood-fuelled hot showers that they may encounter along the way. We do not use wood for cooking or heating water whilst in lodges but use kerosene stoves that we carry with us.

We also carry our own food supplies in order to maintain the highest standards of hygiene and meal quality, and do not deplete local resources.

Vehicles & Safety

During the course of your trip, we will use a variety of vehicles, all which are fit for purpose and the conditions encountered. It should be noted that laws governing transportation safety may differ from those in your home country and on occasion some vehicles may not have seat belts fitted. While game viewing within a national park could be one example. Whilst we do not include animal rides on most of our trips, there are occasions where it may be possible to undertake them optionally and to do so is at your own risk. Note that helmets and professional riding equipment are not available in all circumstances.
